

Anthony J. Daigle

*Portfolio Manager
Investment Management*

Mr. Daigle is a Portfolio Manager of Putnam's Convertible Securities strategies. He specializes in analyzing equities, performing fundamental research, and selecting securities for Putnam's convertible securities strategies. Mr. Daigle has been in the investment industry since he joined Putnam in 2004.

Previously at Putnam, Mr. Daigle served as an Investment Associate and an Analyst in the Equity Research group. In these roles, he was responsible for conducting fundamental analysis, assessing company valuations, and making buy/sell recommendations across multiple sectors.

Mr. Daigle earned a B.S. in International Business from Merrimack College.